About College:

Ganga Singh College, Chapra is a premier constituent college of Jai Prakash Vishwavidyalaya. It was established by a great visionary, Late Shri Kapildeo Singh in 1964. The College offers four years degree courses in Science, Arts and Humanities under CBCS. The college also offers vocational degree course in Industrial Fish and Fisheries. It is one of the oldest academic institutions in Chapra, located in the heart of the town, near Chapra Kachahri railway station.

Introduction:

As we approach the centennial of India's independence in 2047, the theme "Viksit Bharat @ 2047" (Developed India @ 2047) invites us to reflect on the strides our nation must make to emerge as a global leader in all spheres. This seminar aims to envision the roadmap to a developed India, examining how we can harness scientific advancements, social reforms, economic strategies, and cultural progress to build a nation that stands at the forefront of global achievements. By exploring multiple disciplines—ranging from physics to literature, economics to philosophy—we hope to gather insights and solutions that contribute to shaping a brighter, more prosperous future for India. As we celebrate 100 years of independence, the vision for a developed India should be one where innovation, equity, and sustainability are paramount. This seminar will foster discussions around key challenges and opportunities across diverse fields, bringing together scholars, policymakers, and thinkers to chart the course for the future.

Suggested Sub-Themes:

1. Physics: Innovations in energy and technology for a sustainable future.
2. Chemistry: Revolutionizing health, agriculture, and energy through chemical research.
3. Zoology & Botany: Biodiversity conservation for ecological balance.
4. Law: Indian legal system and strengthening legal frameworks for a just and inclusive society.
5. History: Lessons from India's past to shape its future.
6. Philosophy: Ethical paradigms for a developed India.
7. Economics: Strategies for inclusive growth and economic resilience.
8. Literature: The role of culture and narratives in nation-building.
9. Medicine: Indian healing systems.
10. Multidisciplinary: All related subjects, knowledge systems and technologies that help achieve "Viksit Bharat @2047".

This pamphlet should evoke reflection and inspiration, guiding participants to engage meaningfully in building a "Viksit Bharat" by 2047.
